1. In January 1953, at the installations of the former Danube Aircraft Factory, at Szilagyitelep (former Horthyliiget) preparations were being made for the resumption of aircraft production.
2. The plant which was nearly 80% destroyed by bombing during the war has been fully rebuilt and has been for the most part used provisionally by the Csepel Automobile Factory. The latter already made preparations for moving to a new location.
3. The original schedule called for the reopening of the aircraft plant during February 1953.
